I refer to your EIR request as below and respond as follows:

Request

Why the council land at the bottom of Meadow Crescent Cul-de-sac Street was sold by the council to a private investor and how much this piece of land cost and where did the profit of this purchase ended up and what was the benefit to Sion Mills community?

Response

The lands in question were deemed surplus by the former Strabane District Council and were sold together with other surplus lands at public auction for a consideration of £12,500.00.
