Public Notice Decade of Centenaries Funding Programme

Derry City and Strabane Council wish to mark the decade of 100th anniversary from 1913 - 1923 in a fitting and dignified manner, by giving recognition to the diverse narratives of the period, including the 1916 Easter Rising, the Battle of the Somme and other significant events. In order to support activities throughout the Council area, Council has the following funds open for applications:

1) Small Grants Fund

Closing date for applications:
12 noon, Friday 29th January, 2016

The small grants fund of up to £1,000 is available to constituted community and voluntary sector organisations.

Further information on how to submit applications and all related forms can be obtained online at www.derrystrabane.com/council/publicnotice

2) Tender for Decade of centenary flagship commemoration events

Closing date for applications:
12 noon, Monday 1st February, 2016

The tender seeks delivery of minimum 2 large scale events to a maximum of £20,000 each. One to commemorate the Easter Rising and one to commemorate the Battle of the Somme.
