

The Moor Local Area at a Glance - Population

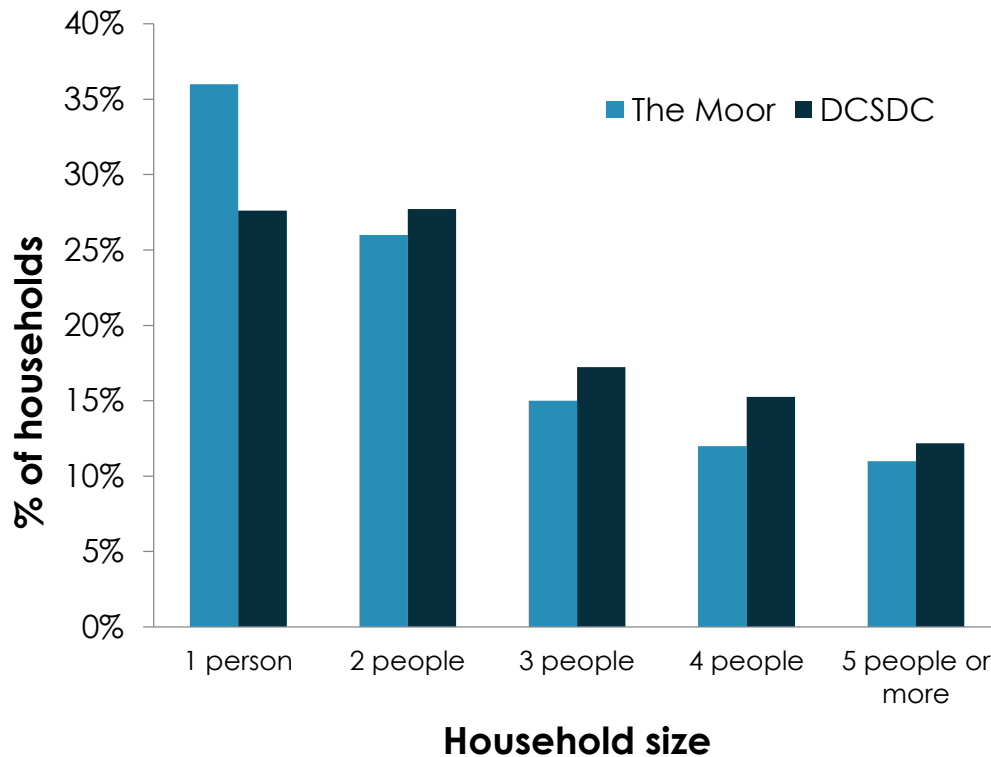

The population in the Moor local area is approximately 17,500

Census 2011 data indicates that The Moor has 21% of its' population aged under 16

The Moor Local Area at a Glance - Households

The Moor local area has 7,000 households

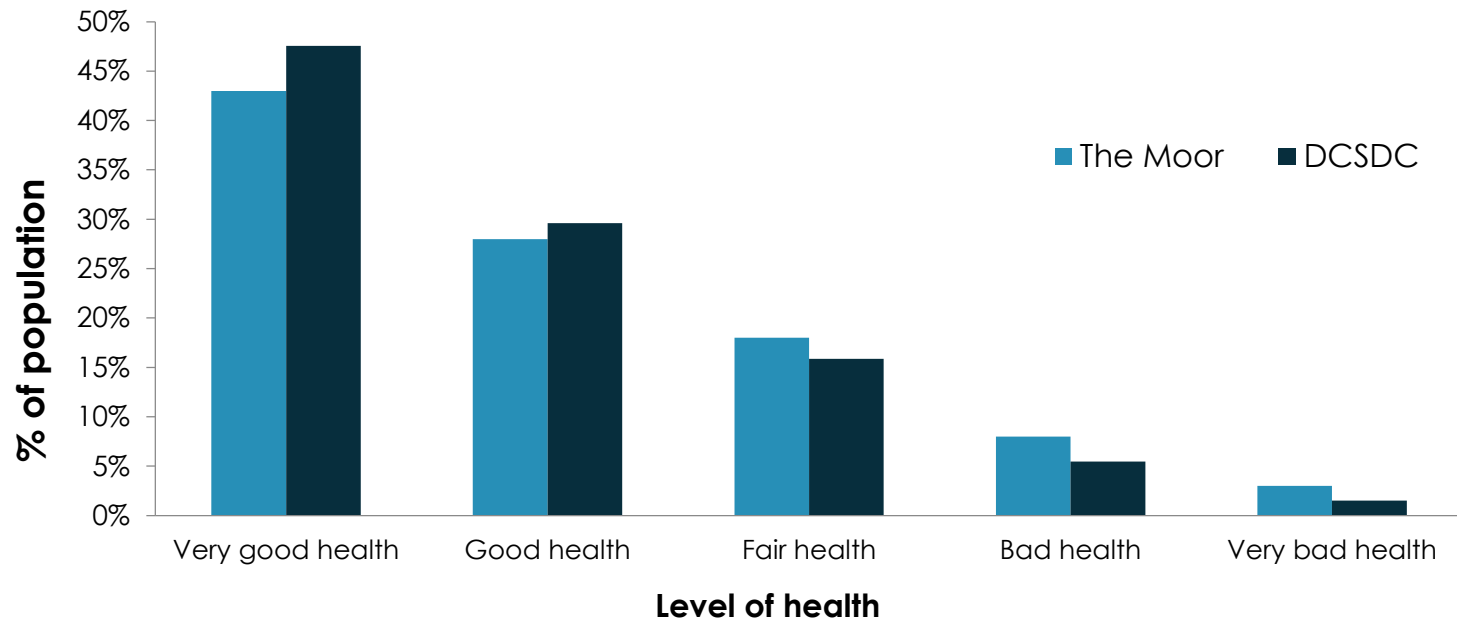

66% households had no dependent children; leaving 34% of households with one or more dependent children.

16% of households in The Moor can be classified as lone parent households. Of these, 37% of lone parents were recorded as being in employment.

36% of households were one person households and 11% had 5 people or more

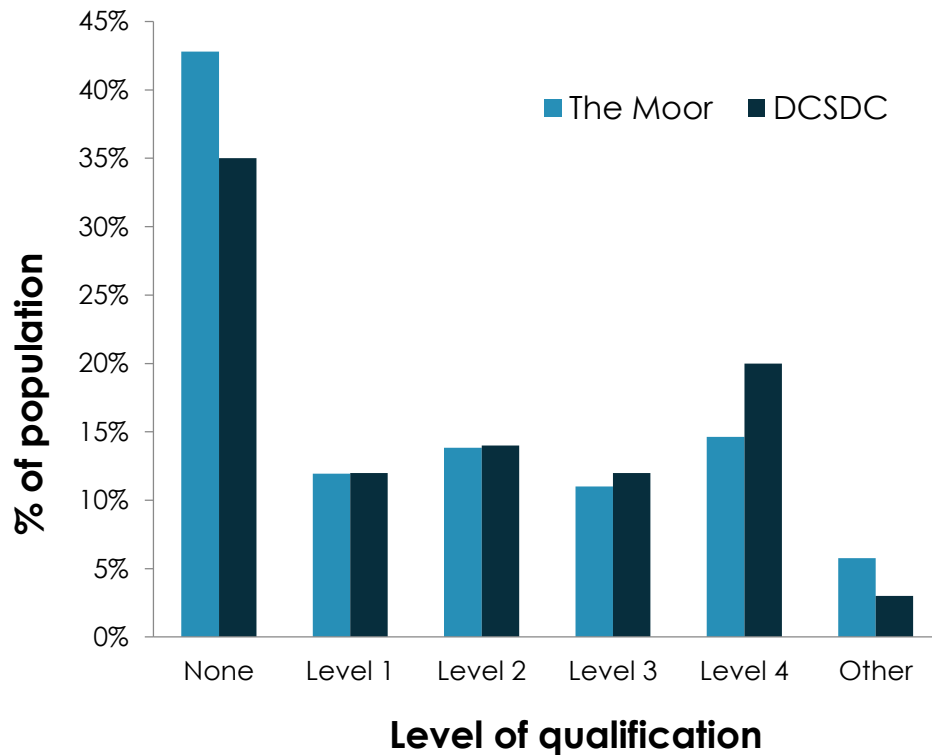

The Moor Local Area at a Glance - Health

71% of the population in The Moor indicated that their health was either 'very good' or 'good'

20% of the population indicated that they had a health problem or disability that 'limited a lot' their day-to-day activities. A further 10% indicated such a condition impacted their day-to-day activities 'a little'

The Moor Local Area at a Glance - Education

It is estimated that 43% of residents in The Moor local area do not have any qualifications.

15% of residents have achieved a 'level 4' qualification.

18% of young people, aged 16-24, in The Moor local area do not have any qualifications whilst 10% have achieved a 'level 4' qualification.

Economic Activity

The 2011 Census estimated that 38% of The Moor population were in employment which was lower than the DCSDC average of 49%

In January 2016, it was estimated that 10% of the population were on the Claimant Count which was higher than the DCSDC average of 6%