Foreword

Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (the Act) requires public authorities, in carrying out their functions relating to Northern Ireland, to have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity and regard to the desirability of promoting good relations across a range of categories outlined in the Act¹.

In our equality scheme we set out how Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership (PCSP) proposes to fulfil the Section 75 statutory duties.

We will commit the necessary resources in terms of people, time and money to make sure that the Section 75 statutory duties are complied with and that the equality scheme is implemented effectively, and on time.

We will commit to having effective internal arrangements in place for ensuring our effective compliance with the Section 75 statutory duties and for monitoring and reviewing our progress.

We will develop and deliver a programme of communication and training with the aim of ensuring that all our staff and PCSP members are made fully aware of our equality scheme and understand the commitments and obligations within it. We will develop a programme of awareness raising for our consultees on the Section 75 statutory duties and our commitments in our equality scheme.

We, the Chairperson of Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership, and the Chief Executive of Derry City and Strabane District Council, are fully committed to effectively fulfilling our Section 75 statutory duties across all our functions (including service provision, employment and procurement) through the effective implementation of our equality scheme.

We realise the important role that the community and voluntary sector and the general public have to play to ensure the Section 75 statutory duties are effectively implemented. Our equality scheme demonstrates how determined we are to ensure there are opportunities, for people affected by our work, to positively influence how we carry out our functions in line with our Section 75 statutory duties. It also offers the means whereby persons directly affected by what they consider to be a failure, on our part, to comply with our equality scheme, can make complaints.

On behalf of the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership and our staff, we are pleased to support and endorse this equality scheme which has been drawn up in accordance with Section 75 and Schedule 9 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 and Equality Commission guidelines.

How we propose to fulfil the Section 75 duties in relation to the relevant functions of the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership

1.2 Schedule 9 4. (1) of the Act requires the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership as a designated public authority to set out in an equality scheme how it proposes to fulfil the duties imposed by Section 75 in relation to its relevant functions. This equality scheme is intended to fulfil that statutory requirement. It is both a statement of our arrangements for fulfilling the Section 75 statutory duties and our plan for their implementation.

1.3 We, the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership are committed to the discharge of our Section 75 obligations in all parts of our organisation and we will commit the necessary available resources in terms of people, time and money to ensure that the Section 75 statutory duties are complied with and that our equality scheme can be implemented effectively.

Who we are and what we do?

On 1 April 2012 – Policing and Community Safety Partnerships (PCSPs) were established through the legislation of the Justice Act (NI) 2011.

On 25 June 2015 – the Derry and Strabane PCSP was legally constituted following the appointment of independent members through a public appointments process carried out by the Northern Ireland Policing Board.

The work of Policing and Community Safety Partnerships is overseen by a Joint Committee. This Joint Committee is made up of representatives from Department of Justice (DoJ) and the Northern Ireland Policing Board (NIPB).

The functions of PCSPs as laid out in Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2011 Part 3 and Schedule 1 outlines the functions of a PCSP are as follows.

(a) To provide views to the relevant Area Commander and to the Policing Board on any matter concerning the policing of the District

(b) To monitor the performance of the police in carrying out
(i) the policing plan in relation to the District; and
(ii) the local policing plan applying to the District or any part of the District

(c) to make arrangements for obtaining the co-operation of the public with the police in preventing crime and enhancing community safety in the District.

(d) to make arrangements for obtaining the views of the public about matters concerning the policing of the district and enhancing community safety in the District and to consider fully any views obtained.

(i) such other functions as are conferred on it by any other statutory provision.

(2) The functions of a PCSP mentioned in subsection (1)(a) (b) and (c) –

(a) are referred to in this part as its “restricted functions” and

(b) must be exercised, on behalf of the PCSP, by the Policing Committee of the PCSP.

(3) References in this section to enhancing community safety in any district are to make the district one in which it is, and is perceived to be, safer to live and work, in particular by the reduction of actual and perceived levels of crime and other anti-social behaviour.

Employment and procurement functions

Staff of the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership are employed by and are responsible to the Derry City and Strabane District Council, and benefit from and are subject to all employment policies of the Council.

Chapter 2 Our arrangements for assessing our compliance with the section 75 duties(Schedule 9 4. (2) (a))

2.9 The Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership will liaise closely with the Equality Commission to ensure that progress on the implementation of our equality scheme is maintained.

2.10 The Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership has developed an Action Plan to promote equality of opportunity and good relations. This Action Plan is set out in Appendix 6 to this equality scheme, however it does not form part of the Equality Scheme.

Action plan/action measures

2.11 The action measures that make up our Action Plan will be relevant to our functions. They will be developed and prioritised on the basis of an audit of inequalities. The audit of inequalities has gathered and analysed information across the Section 75 categories to identify the inequalities that exist for our services users and those affected by our policies.

2.12 Action measures will be specific, measurable, linked to achievable outcomes, realistic and time bound. Action measures will include performance indicators and timescales for their achievement.

2.13 We will develop any action plans for a period of between one and five years in order to align them with our corporate and business planning cycles. Implementation of the action measures will be incorporated into our business planning process.

2.14 We will seek input from our stakeholders and consult on our action plan before we send it to the Equality Commission and thereafter when reviewing the plan as per 2.16 below.

2.15 We will monitor our progress on the delivery of our action measures annually and update the action plan as necessary to ensure that it remains effective and relevant to our functions and work.

2.16 The Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership will inform the Commission of any changes or amendments to our action plan and will also include this information in our Section 75 annual progress report to the Commission. Our Section 75 annual progress report will incorporate information on progress we have made in implementing our action plans/action measures.

Chapter 3 Our arrangements for consulting

(Schedule 9 4. (2) (a)) - on matters to which a duty (S75 (1) or (2)) is likely to be relevant (including details of the persons to be consulted).

(Schedule 9 4. (2) (b)) on the likely impact of policies adopted or proposed to be adopted by us on the promotion of equality of opportunity.

In addition to Equality Commission guidance referenced in this section you may find it useful to refer to:

Department for Business, Enterprise and regulatory Reform Code of Conduct on Consultation (2008)

<http://www.berr.gov.uk/files/file47158.pdf>

3.1 We recognise the importance of consultation in all aspects of the implementation of our statutory equality duties. We will consult on our equality scheme, action measures, equality impact assessments and other matters relevant to the Section 75 statutory duties.

3.2 We are committed to carrying out consultation in accordance with the following principles (as contained in the Equality Commission's guidance 'Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 – A Guide for Public Authorities (April 2010)')

3.2.1 All consultations will seek the views of those directly affected by the matter/policy, the Equality Commission, representative groups of Section 75 categories, other public authorities, voluntary and community groups, our staff and their trades unions and such other groups who have a legitimate interest in the matter, whether or not they have a direct economic or personal interest.

Initially all consultees (see Appendix 3), as a matter of course, will be notified (by email or post) of the matter/policy being consulted upon to ensure they are aware of all consultations. Thereafter, to ensure the most effective use of our and our consultees' resources, we will take a targeted approach to consultation for those consultees that may have a particular interest in the matter/policy being consulted upon and to whom the matter/policy is of particular relevance. This may include for example regional or local consultations, sectoral or thematic consultation etc.

3.2.2 Consultation with all stakeholders will begin as early as possible. We will engage with affected individuals and representative groups to identify how best to consult or engage with them. We will ask our consultees what their preferred consultation methods are and will give consideration to these. Methods of consultation could include:

- Face-to-face meetings
- Focus groups
- Written documents with the opportunity to comment in writing
- Questionnaires
- Information/notification by email with an opportunity to opt in/opt out of the consultation
- Internet discussions or
- Telephone consultations.

This list is not exhaustive and we may develop other additional methods of consultation more appropriate to key stakeholders and the matter being consulted upon.

3.2.3 We will consider the accessibility and format of every method of consultation we use in order to remove barriers to the consultation process. Specific consideration will be given as to how best to communicate with children and young people, people with disabilities (in particular people with learning disabilities) and minority ethnic communities. We will take account of existing and developing good practice, including the Equality Commission's guidance Let's Talk Let's Listen – Guidance for public authorities on consulting and involving children and young people (2008).

Information will be made available, on request, in alternative formats⁴, in a timely manner. We will ensure that such consultees have equal time to respond.

⁴ See Chapter 6 of our equality scheme for further information on alternative formats of information we provide.

3.2.4 Specific training will be provided to those facilitating consultations to ensure that they have the necessary skills to communicate effectively with consultees.

3.2.5 To ensure effective consultation with consultees⁵ on Section 75 matters, we will develop a programme of awareness raising on the Section 75 statutory duties and the commitments in our equality scheme by undertaking the following:

- Issue of a press release, which will also be placed as a news item on the Derry City and Strabane District Council website, when the Equality Scheme is approved by the Equality Commission for Northern Ireland.
- Inform all consultees of how to access a copy of our approved equality scheme and action plan following the equality scheme's approval by the Equality Commission for Northern Ireland.

3.2.6 The consultation period lasts for a minimum of twelve weeks to allow adequate time for groups to consult amongst themselves as part of the process of forming a view. However, in exceptional circumstances when this timescale is not feasible (for example implementing EU Directives or UK wide legislation, meeting Health and Safety requirements, addressing urgent public health matters or complying with Court judgements), we may shorten timescales to eight weeks or less before the policy is implemented. We may continue consultation thereafter and will review the policy as part of our monitoring commitments⁶.

Where, under these exceptional circumstances, we must implement a policy immediately, as it is beyond our authority's control, we may consult after implementation of the policy, in order to ensure that any impacts of the policy are considered.

3.2.7 If a consultation exercise is to take place over a period when consultees are less able to respond, for example, over the summer or Christmas break, or if the policy under consideration is particularly complex, we will give consideration to the feasibility of allowing a longer period for the consultation.

⁵ Please see Appendix 3 for a list of our consultees.

⁶ Please see below at 4.27 to 4.31 for details on monitoring.

3.2.8 We are conscious of the fact that affected individuals and representative groups may have different needs. We will take appropriate measures to ensure full participation in any meetings that are held. We will consider for example the time of day, the appropriateness of the venue, in particular whether it can be accessed by those with disabilities, how the meeting is to be conducted, the use of appropriate language, whether a signer and/or interpreter is necessary, and whether the provision of childcare and support for other carers is required.

3.2.9 We will make all relevant information available to consultees in appropriate formats to ensure meaningful consultation. This will include detailed information on the policy proposal being consulted upon and any relevant quantitative and qualitative data.

3.2.10 In making any decision with respect to a policy adopted or proposed to be adopted, we will take into account any assessment and consultation carried out in relation to the policy.

3.2.11 We will provide feedback to consultees in a timely manner. A feedback report will be prepared which includes summary information on the policy consulted upon, a summary of consultees' comments and a summary of our consideration of and response to consultees' input. The feedback will be provided in formats suitable to consultees. (Please see also 6.3)

3.3 A list of our consultees is included in this equality scheme at Appendix 3. It can also be obtained by contacting

3.4 Our consultation list is not exhaustive and will be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure it remains relevant to our functions and policies.

We welcome enquiries from any person/s or organisations wishing to be added to the list of consultees. Please contact the PCSP Manager to provide your contact details and have your areas of interest noted or have your name/details removed or amended. Please also inform us at this stage if you would like information sent to you in a particular format or language.

Chapter 4 Our arrangements for assessing, monitoring and publishing the impact of policies

(Schedule 9 4. (2) (b); Schedule 9 4. (2) (c); Schedule 9 4. (2) (d); Schedule 9 9. (1); Schedule 9 9.(2))

Our arrangements for assessing the likely impact of policies adopted or proposed to be adopted on the promotion of equality of opportunity (Schedule 9 4. (2) (b))

4.1 In the context of Section 75, 'policy' is very broadly defined and it covers all the ways in which we carry out or propose to carry out our functions in relation to Northern Ireland. In respect of this equality scheme, the term policy is used for any (proposed/amended/existing) strategy, policy initiative or practice and/or decision, whether written or unwritten and irrespective of the label given to it, eg, 'draft', 'pilot', 'high level' or 'sectoral'.

4.2 In making any decision with respect to a policy adopted or proposed to be adopted, we take into account any assessment and consultation carried out in relation to the policy, as required by Schedule 9.9. (2) of the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

The policies adopted by the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership are policies which have been developed by; Derry City and Strabane District Council, Northern Ireland Policing Board and the Department of Justice.

Consequently, all these policies, where required, have already been through a screening process, and EQIA process where required. However, if the Policing and Community Safety Partnership develops any additional policies it will use the tools of screening and equality impact assessment as detailed below.

4.3 The Derry and Strabane Policing & Community Safety Partnership will use the tools of screening and equality impact assessment to assess the likely impact of a policy on the promotion of equality of opportunity. In carrying out these assessments we will relate them to the intended outcomes of the policy in question and will also follow Equality Commission guidance, where deemed relevant:

‘the guidance on screening, including the screening template, as detailed in the Commission’s guidance ‘Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 – A Guide for Public Authorities (April 2010)’ and on undertaking an equality impact assessment as detailed in the Commission’s guidance ‘Practical guidance on equality impact assessment (February 2005)’.

Screening

4.4 The purpose of screening is to identify those policies that are likely to have an impact on equality of opportunity.

4.5 Screening will be completed at the earliest opportunity in the policy development/review process. Policies which we propose to adopt will be subject to screening prior to implementation. For more detailed strategies or policies that are to be put in place through a series of stages, we will screen at various stages during implementation.

4.6 The lead role in the screening of a policy will be taken by the policy decision maker who has the authority to make changes to that policy. However, screening will also involve other relevant team members, for example, equality specialists, those who implement the policy and staff members from other relevant work areas. Where possible, we will include key stakeholders in the screening process.

4.7 The following questions will be applied to all our policies as part of the screening process:

What is the likely impact on equality of opportunity for those affected by this policy, for each of the Section 75 equality categories? (minor/major/none)

Are there opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity for people within the Section 75 equality categories? (Yes or No)

Are there opportunities, without prejudice, to the equality of opportunity duty, to better promote good relations through tackling prejudice and/ or promoting understanding between the three Section 75 (2) categories, namely persons of different religious belief, political opinion and racial group? (Yes/No)

Is there evidence to suggest that this policy would promote positive attitudes towards people with a disability? (Yes/No)

Is there evidence to suggest that this policy would encourage the participation of people with a disability in public life? (Yes/No)

4.8 In order to answer the screening questions, we will gather all relevant information and data, both qualitative and quantitative. In taking this evidence into account we will consider the different needs, experiences and priorities for each of the Section 75 equality categories. Any screening decision will be informed by this evidence.

4.9 Completion of screening, taking into account our consideration of the answers to all four screening questions set out in 4.7 above, will lead to one of the following three outcomes:

- the policy has been 'screened in' for equality impact assessment
- the policy has been 'screened out' with mitigation⁷ or an alternative policy proposed to be adopted
- the policy has been 'screened out' without mitigation or an alternative policy proposed to be adopted.

4.10 If our screening concludes that the likely impact of a policy is 'minor' in respect of one, or more, of the equality of opportunity and/or good relations categories, we may on occasion decide to proceed with an equality impact assessment, depending on the policy. If an EQIA is not to be conducted we will nonetheless consider measures that might mitigate the policy impact as well as alternative policies that might better achieve the promotion of equality of opportunity.

Where we mitigate we will outline in our screening template the reasons to support this decision together with the proposed changes, amendments or alternative policy.

This screening decision will be 'signed off' by the PCSP Manager.

⁷ Mitigation – Where an assessment (screening in this case) reveals that a particular policy has an adverse impact on equality of opportunity and / or good relations, a public authority must consider ways of delivering the policy outcomes which have a less adverse effect on the relevant Section 75 categories.

4.11 If our screening concludes that the likely impact of a policy is 'major' in respect of one, or more, of the equality of opportunity categories, we will normally subject the policy to an equality impact assessment. This screening decision will be 'signed off' by the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership Manager.

4.12 If our screening concludes that the likely impact of a policy is 'none', in respect of all of the equality of opportunity, we may decide to screen the policy out. If a policy is 'screened out' as having no relevance to equality of opportunity, we will give details of the reasons for the decision taken. This screening decision will be 'signed off' by the appropriate policy lead within the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership.

Good Relations Question (4.7.3 above)

4.13 In relation to the policy under consideration, if the answer to the screening question set out in 4.7.3 above is concluded that Yes, there are opportunities to better promote good relations between the Section 75 (2) categories, through tackling prejudice and/ or promoting understanding, then Council will refer the issue to a Designated Working Group which comprises of elected members and Council officers.

The Group will consider the potential opportunities to promote good relations. The group will consult with relevant stakeholders as part of its consideration, where this consultation is proportionate, relevant and enhances decision-making.

Completion of the screening template will take the Group's consideration into account together with relevant evidence.

The Terms of Reference of the Group are attached at Appendix 4 and are part of the Council's approved Equality Scheme arrangements.

Disability Duty Questions (4.74 and 4.75)

4.14 Council has made a commitment to fulfil the statutory obligations in compliance with Section 49A of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (as amended by the Disability Discrimination (NI) Order 2006). This Act places new duties on public authorities, when carrying out their functions to have regard to the need:

- To promote positive attitudes towards disabled people; and
- To encourage participation by disabled people in public life.

In order to mainstream this duty Council have inserted the two questions (See 4.7.4 and 4.7.5) on Section 75 screening template to assess the significance of the disability duties in relation to Council policies/services being considered.

In relation to addressing the screening questions set out in 4.7.4 and 4.7.5 Council will adopt the same process outlined in above for Good Relations (para 4.13)

Completed Screening Templates

4.15 As previously stated all considerations will be recorded together with relevant evidence on the screening template.

The outcome of the screening process will be presented to the Governance and Strategic Planning Committee or other relevant committee, which in turn will seek ratification from full Council for approval. The proposed measures will then be relayed back to relevant officers to action.

4.16 Following ratification, all screening templates, signed off and approved by the senior manager responsible for the policy, will be made available on our website as soon as possible.

4.17 If a consultee, including the Equality Commission, raises a concern about a screening decision based on supporting evidence, we will review the screening decision

Equality impact assessment

4.16 An equality impact assessment (EQIA) is a thorough and systematic analysis of a policy, whether that policy is formal or informal, and irrespective of the scope of that policy. The primary function of an EQIA is to determine the extent of any impact of a policy upon the Section 75 categories and to determine if the impact is an adverse one. It is also an opportunity to demonstrate the likely positive outcomes of a policy and to seek ways to more effectively promote equality of opportunity and to consider any complimentary steps desirable to promote good relations.

4.17 Once a policy is screened and screening has identified that an equality impact assessment is necessary, we will carry out the EQIA in accordance with Equality Commission guidance. The equality impact assessment will be carried out as part of the policy development process, before the policy is implemented.

4.18 Any equality impact assessment will be subject to consultation at the appropriate stage(s). (For details see above Chapter 3 “Our Arrangements for Consulting”).

Our arrangements for publishing the results of the assessments of the likely impact of policies we have adopted or propose to adopt on the promotion of equality of opportunity (Schedule 9 4. (2) (d); Schedule 9 9. (1))

4.19 We will make publicly available the results of our assessments (screening and EQIA) of the likely impact of our policies on the promotion of equality of opportunity and good relations.

4.26 We will inform the general public about the availability of this material through communications such as press releases where appropriate.

Our arrangements for monitoring any adverse impact of policies we have adopted on equality of opportunity
(Schedule 9 4. (2) (c))

4.27 Monitoring can assist us to deliver better public services and continuous improvements. Monitoring Section 75 information involves the processing of sensitive personal data (data relating to the racial or ethnic origin of individuals, sexual orientation, political opinion, religious belief, etc.). In order to carry out monitoring in a confidential and effective manner, the Derry and Strabane Policing & Community Safety Partnership follows guidance from the Office of the Information Commissioner and the Equality Commission.

4.28 We will monitor any adverse impact on the promotion of equality of opportunity of policies we have adopted. We are also committed to monitoring more broadly to identify opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity and good relations in line with Equality Commission guidance.

4.29 The systems we will establish to monitor the impact of policies and identify opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity and good relations are:

- The collection, collation and analysis of existing relevant primary quantitative and qualitative data across all nine equality categories on an ongoing basis

- The collection, collation and analysis of existing relevant secondary sources of quantitative and qualitative data across all nine equality categories on an ongoing basis
- An audit of existing information systems within one year of approval of this equality scheme, to identify the extent of current monitoring and take action to address any gaps in order to have the necessary information on which to base decisions
- Undertaking or commissioning new data if necessary.

4.30 If over a two year period monitoring and evaluation show that a policy results in greater adverse impact than predicted, or if opportunities arise which would allow for greater equality of opportunity to be promoted, we will ensure that the policy is revised to achieve better outcomes for relevant equality groups.

4.31 We will review our EQIA monitoring information on an annual basis. Other monitoring information is reviewed

Other additional arrangements for monitoring include:

All completed job applications for positions with the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership include a monitoring form. This data is collated and compiled by the Council's Human Resources Section.

The Council Human Resources Section operates a PAMS System that stores, updates and analyses data on employees. This system provides valuable data on the profile of employees and applicants.

Our arrangements for publishing the results of our monitoring (Schedule 9 4. (2) (d))

4.32 Schedule 9 4. (2) (d) requires us to publish the results of the monitoring of adverse impacts of policies we have adopted. However, we are committed to monitoring more broadly and the results of our policy monitoring will be published as follows:

4.33 EQIA monitoring information will be published as part of our Section 75 annual progress report [see 2.7]

4.34 All information will be published and is accessible and can be made available in alternative formats on request. Please see below at 6.3 for details.

There is real opportunity for change for trans individuals. We ask the main political parties to listen and act on our key asks for the future.

Our Community Messages

Dignity & Respect

Regard trans individuals as equal citizens with equal rights

Empowerment

Empower trans individuals to be authorities on all aspects of their own lives

Imagery

Encourage diverse, representative, realistic & positive portrayals of trans individuals

Our Asks of Political Parties

- A commitment to include positive images of trans individuals in all Central Government publications to increase the visibility of our communities
- A commitment to the speedy introduction of Human Rights based Gender Recognition legislation across the whole of Europe, which is independent of any necessity to fulfil any medical requirements or to undergo any medical procedures

This manifesto has been developed as a collaboration between trans organisations from across the UK and Ireland

FOCUS:
THE IDENTITY STRUGGLE

Trans Manifesto—Background

Trans issues have been gaining increasing coverage in the British and Irish media over recent years. This mirrors increasing political debate over trans rights, including the Equality Act 2010, evidence presented at the Leveson Inquiry and the debates over same-sex marriage. The Westminster Government issued the first ever Transgender Action Plan in 2011 and many politicians were contacted regarding press coverage of trans people following the suicide of Lucy Meadows in 2013. In Ireland we have been fighting for many years to have proper Gender Recognition Legislation introduced. Sinn Fein was the first party in An Oireachtas to propose a draft Gender Recognition Bill to be passed by the legislature.

The idea of a Trans manifesto was first raised in the UK in discussions with Conservative, Labour, Liberal Democrat and Green politicians during the summer of 2013, and the idea was enthusiastically received. FOCUS: THE IDENTITY TRUST simultaneously attempted to engage in dialogue with politicians in Northern Ireland. Accordingly a number of trans groups met in the autumn, and three core statements were unanimously agreed:

- Respect trans people as equal citizens with equal rights.
There is a feeling that trans peoples' rights are sometimes subsidiary to those enjoyed by others. The passing of same-sex marriage legislation means that trans people who married in England, Scotland and Wales no longer need to end their marriage should they wish to seek gender recognition. However in England and Wales the process requires the written consent of the spouse — the so-called spousal veto. Married trans people in Northern Ireland still have to end their marriage prior to gender recognition. The Equality Act seemed to reverse some of the protections previously enjoyed by trans people, with some controversial exemptions specified.
- Empower trans individuals to be authorities on all aspects of their own lives.
Provision of healthcare to enable trans people to transition to their new gender has been enshrined in case law since 1997, but many see the NHS process, usually provided through Gender Identity Clinics, as demeaning. The process of gender recognition requires medical reports, meaning that many have no alternative to the NHS process. However recent statements from NHS leaders indicate an acceptance that people who live with long-term conditions, such as gender dysphoria, quickly become experts with knowledge that matches or even exceeds that of medics. The gender recognition process also indicates that the state owns your gender, with trans people having to convince the state to change it. Those who don't see themselves as male or female (non-binary people) are also becoming more visible, but those two genders remain the only ones recognised in law and in government statistics and documents.

- Develop diverse, representative, realistic and positive portrayals of trans individuals.

Trans people feel that media coverage has often been exploitative and sensational, rather than reflecting their real lives or issues that they face. Representations of trans women dominate, leading to the relative invisibility of trans men and non-binary people. Government could take a lead in de-exoticising trans people by including images of and stories from trans people in publications that don't necessarily have any trans focus.

While two specific requests have been made, the real hope is that politicians of all parties will subscribe to a paradigm shift in the way trans people are viewed. By ensuring that all policy decisions are viewed through these three statements, the inequalities that trans people still face (including but not restricted to family law, immigration, education, employment and healthcare) will start to be naturally eliminated.

The intention has never been that trans people should have more rights than anyone else, but instead have the same rights that others take for granted.

Appendix 6 Glossary of terms

Action measures and outcomes

Specific measures to promote equality and good relations for the relevant Section 75 equality and good relations categories, linked to achievable outcomes, which should be realistic and timely.

Action plan

A plan that sets out the actions a public authority will take to implement its Section 75 statutory duties. It is a mechanism for the realisation of measures to achieve equality outcomes for the Section 75 equality and good relations categories.

Adverse impact

Where a Section 75 category has been affected differently by a policy and the effect is less favourable. If a policy has an adverse impact on a Section 75 category, a public authority must consider whether or not the adverse impact is unlawfully discriminatory. In either case a public authority must take measures to redress the adverse impact, by considering mitigating measures and/or alternative ways of delivering the policy.

Affirmative action

In general terms, affirmative action can be defined as being anything consistent with the legislation that is necessary to bring about positive change. It is a phrase used in the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998 to describe lawful action that is aimed at promoting equality of opportunity and fair participation in employment between members of the Protestant and Roman Catholic communities in Northern Ireland.

Article 55 Reviews

Under the Fair Employment and Treatment (NI) Order 1998, all registered employers must conduct periodic reviews of the composition of their workforces and of their employment practices for the purposes of determining whether members of the Protestant and Roman Catholic communities are enjoying, and are likely to continue to enjoy, fair participation in employment in each employers concern.

These reviews, which are commonly known as Article 55 Reviews, must be conducted at least once every three years.

Audit of inequalities

An audit of inequalities is a systematic review and analysis of inequalities that exist for service users and those affected by a public authority's policies. An audit can be used by a public authority to inform its work in relation to the Section 75 equality and good relations duties. It can also enable public authorities to assess progress on the implementation of the Section 75 statutory duties, as it provides baseline information on existing inequalities relevant to a public authority's functions.

Consultation

In the context of Section 75, consultation is the process of asking those affected by a policy (for example, service users, staff, the general public) for their views on how the policy could be implemented more effectively to promote equality of opportunity across the nine categories. Different circumstances will call for different types of consultation. Consultations could, for example, include meetings, focus groups, surveys and questionnaires.

Desk audit

An audit of a draft equality scheme to ensure that the scheme conforms to the requirements on form and content as detailed in the Equality Commissions guidelines.

Differential impact

Differential impact occurs where a Section 75 group has been affected differently by a policy. This effect could be positive, neutral or negative. A public authority must make a judgement as to whether a policy has a differential impact, and then it must determine whether the impact is adverse, based on a systematic appraisal of the accumulated information.

Discrimination

The anti-discrimination laws prohibit the following forms of discrimination:

- Direct discrimination
- Indirect discrimination

- Disability
- Victimisation
- Harassment

Direct discrimination

This generally occurs where a public authority treats a person less favourably than it treats (or would treat) another person, in the same or similar circumstances, on one or more of the statutory non-discrimination grounds. A decision or action that is directly discriminatory will normally be unlawful unless:

- a. In an age discrimination case, the decision can be objectively justified
- b. In any other case, the public authority can rely on a statutory exception that permits it, such as a genuine occupational requirement exception or a positive action exception, which permits an employer to use “welcoming statements” or to take other lawful positive action to encourage participation by under-represented or otherwise disadvantaged groups.

Indirect discrimination

The definition of this term varies across some of the anti-discrimination laws, but indirect discrimination generally occurs where a public authority applies to all persons a particular provision, criterion or practice, but it has the effect of placing people who share a particular equality characteristic (for example, the same sex, religious belief or race) at a particular disadvantage compared with other people. A provision, criterion or practice that is indirectly discriminatory will normally be unlawful unless: (a) it can be objectively justified, or (b) the public authority can rely on a statutory exception that permits it.

Disability discrimination

In addition to direct discrimination, indirect discrimination, victimisation and harassment, discrimination against disabled people may also occur in two other ways:

- a. Disability-related discrimination This generally occurs where a public authority, without lawful justification and for a reason that relates to a disabled persons disability, treats that person less favourably than it treats (or would treat) other people to whom that reason does not (or would not) apply.
- b. Failure to comply with a duty to make reasonable adjustments. One of the most notable features of the disability discrimination legislation is that in prescribed circumstances it imposes a duty on relevant employers, service providers and public authorities to take such steps as are reasonable to remove or reduce particular disadvantages experienced by disabled people in those circumstances.

Victimisation

This form of discrimination generally occurs where a public authority treats a person less favourably than it treats (or would treat) another person, in the same or similar circumstances, because the person has previously exercised his/her rights under the anti-discrimination laws, or has assisted another person to do so. Victimisation cannot be justified and is always unlawful.

Harassment

Harassment generally occurs where a person is subjected to unwanted conduct that is related to a non-discrimination ground with the purpose, or which has the effect, of violating his/her dignity or creating for that person an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. Harassment cannot be justified and is always unlawful.

Economic appraisal

An economic appraisal is a systematic process for examining alternative uses of resources, focusing on the assessment of needs, objectives, options, costs benefits, risks, funding and affordability, and other factors relevant to decisions.

Equality impact assessment

The mechanism underpinning Section 75, where existing and proposed policies are assessed in order to determine whether they have an adverse impact on equality of opportunity for the relevant Section 75 categories. EQIAs require the analysis of both quantitative and qualitative data.

Equality of opportunity

The prevention, elimination or regulation of discrimination between people on grounds of characteristics including sex, marital status, age, disability, religious belief, political opinion, dependants, race and sexual orientation.

The promotion of equality of opportunity entails more than the elimination of discrimination. It requires proactive measures to be taken to secure equality of opportunity between the Section 75 categories.

Equality scheme

A document that outlines a public authority's arrangements for complying with its Section 75 obligations. An equality scheme must include an outline of the public authority's arrangements for carrying out consultations, screening, EQIAs, monitoring, training and arrangements for ensuring access to information and services.

Good relations

Although not defined in the legislation, the Equality Commission has agreed the following working definition of good relations: "the growth of relations and structures for Northern Ireland that acknowledge the religious, political and racial context of this society, and that seek to promote respect, equity and trust, and embrace diversity in all its forms."

Mainstreaming equality

The integration of equal opportunities principles, strategies and practices into the everyday work of public authorities from the outset. In other words, mainstreaming is the process of ensuring that equality considerations are built into the policy development process from the beginning, rather than being bolted on at the end. Mainstreaming can help improve methods of working by increasing a public authority's accountability, responsiveness to need and relations with the public. It can bring added value at many levels.

Mitigation of adverse impact

Where an EQIA reveals that a particular policy has an adverse impact on equality of opportunity, a public authority must consider ways of delivering the policy outcomes which have a less adverse effect on the relevant Section 75 categories.

Monitoring

Monitoring consists of continuously scrutinising and evaluating a policy to assess its impact on the Section 75 categories. Monitoring must be sensitive to the issues associated with human rights and privacy. Public authorities should seek advice from consultees and Section 75 representative groups when setting up monitoring systems.

Monitoring consists of the collection of relevant information and the evaluation of policies. It is not solely about the collection of data, it can also take the form of regular meetings and reporting of research undertaken. Monitoring is not an end in itself but provides the data for the next cycle of policy screening.

Northern Ireland Act 1998

The Act, implementing the Good Friday Agreement, received Royal Assent on 19th November 1998. Section 75 of the Act created the statutory equality duties.

Northern Ireland Human Rights Commission

A statutory body established under Section 68 of the Act, which works to ensure that the human rights of everyone in Northern Ireland are fully protected in law, policy and practice.

Northern Ireland Statistics and Research Agency

The Northern Ireland Statistics and Research Agency (NISRA) is an executive agency within the Department of Finance (DoF).

It provides statistical and research information regarding Northern Ireland issues, and it provides registration services to the public in the most effective and efficient way.

The Executive formerly the Office of the First Minister and Deputy First Minister

The Executive Office formerly the Office of the First Minister and Deputy First Minister (OFMdFM) is responsible for providing advice, guidance, challenge and support on Section 75 issues to other Northern Ireland Civil Service departments.

Policy

The formal and informal decisions a public authority makes in relation to carrying out its duties. Defined in the New Oxford English Dictionary as: “a course or principle of action adopted or proposed by a government party, business or individual”. In the context of Section 75, the term “policies” covers all the ways in which a public authority carries out or proposes to carry out its functions relating to Northern Ireland. Policies include unwritten as well as written policies.

Positive action

This phrase is not defined in any statute, but the Equality Commission understands it to mean any lawful action that a public authority might take for the purpose of promoting equality of opportunity for all persons in relation to employment or in accessing goods, facilities or services (such as health services, housing, education, justice, policing). It may involve adopting new policies, practices or procedures, or changing or abandoning old ones. Positive action is not the same as positive discrimination.

Positive discrimination differs from positive action in that positive action involves the taking of lawful actions whereas positive discrimination involves the taking of unlawful actions. Consequently, positive action is, by definition, lawful whereas positive discrimination is unlawful.

Qualitative data

Qualitative data refers to the experiences of individuals from their perspective, most often with less emphasis on numbers or statistical analysis. Consultations are more likely to yield qualitative rather than quantitative data.

Quantitative data

Quantitative data refers to numbers, typically derived from either a population in general or samples of that population. This information is often analysed by either using descriptive statistics, which consider general profiles, distributions and trends in the data, or inferential statistics, which are used to determine “significance” either in relationships or differences in the data.

Screening

The procedure for identifying which policies will be subject to EQIA, and how these EQIAs will be prioritised. The purpose of screening is to identify the policies that are likely to have a minor/major impact on equality of opportunity so that the greatest resources can be devoted to improving these policies. Screening requires a systematic review of existing and proposed policies.

Screening template

A document that allows the screening results to be recorded.

Schedule 9

Schedule 9 of the Act sets out detailed provisions for the enforcement of the Section 75 statutory duties, including an outline of what should be included in an equality scheme.

Section 75

Section 75 of the Act provides that each public authority is required, in carrying out its functions relating to Northern Ireland, to have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity between:

- Persons of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status and sexual orientation
- Men and women generally
- Persons with a disability and persons without
- Persons with dependants and persons without.

Without prejudice to these obligations, each public authority in carrying out its functions relating to Northern Ireland must also have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group.

Section 75 investigation

An investigation carried out by the Equality Commission, under Schedule 9 of the Act, arising from the failure of a public authority to comply with the commitments set out in its approved equality scheme.

There are two types of Equality Commission investigation:

1. An investigation of a complaint made by an individual, who claims to have been directly affected by the failure of a public authority to comply with its approved equality scheme
2. An investigation initiated by the Equality Commission, where it believes that a public authority may have failed to comply with its approved equality scheme.

SECTION1 BACKGROUND TO INEQUALITY AUDIT

Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 provides that:

- (1) A public authority shall in carrying out its functions relating to Northern Ireland have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity-
- (a) between persons of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status or sexual orientation;
 - (b) between men and women generally;
 - (c) between persons with a disability and persons without; and
 - (d) between persons with dependants and persons without.
- (2) Without prejudice to its obligations under subsection (1), a public authority shall in carrying out its functions relating to Northern Ireland have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group.

In 2010 the Equality Commission published revised guidance for public authorities to the implementation of Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998. This Guidance was developed in the light of the conclusions and recommendations of the Commission's Final Report of the Review of the Effectiveness of Section 75, published in November 2008. All public authorities have been required to submit new Equality Schemes to comply with this revised guidance.

One of the key recommendations of the Review related to the need to shift the focus of delivery of the section 75 duties from process to outcomes. The revised guidance recommended that public authorities developed action plans to address inequalities experienced across the section 75 categories, alongside the development of revised Equality Schemes. It further recommends that an Audit of Inequalities be conducted in order to inform the development of the Action Plan.

The Commission in its guide defines an audit of inequalities as a “systematic review and analysis of inequalities which exist for service users and those affected by a public authority’s policies”.

This Audit of Inequalities has enabled the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership to identify potential functional areas for further or improved discharge of its Section 75 duties and will inform the PCSPs equality action plan and also the key strategic actions of the PCSP’s Action Plan for 2016-2017.

Development of the Inequalities Audit and Action Plan

The Equality Commission, in its correspondence to Policing & Community Safety Partnerships of 1 March 2016, recommended that all public authorities undertake an audit of inequalities to inform that identification and development of action measures for the Equality Scheme. They further advised that these measures should be relevant to our functions and should seek to address inequalities that exist for service users and also promote equality of opportunity.

The production of an inequalities audit was a new challenge for all PCSPs. A regional Manager working group comprising Equality Officers was set up to scope the areas for audit.

The regional working group recommended that, at this time, three primary areas be reviewed within the audit, namely;

- Facilities
- Membership/Structure
- Services

It was considered that the above areas were likely to have most impact on section 75 categories. However, the plan will be monitored and reviewed on an annual basis and any inequalities identified in other service areas will be investigated.

The working group developed the following model inequalities audit template for all PCSP’s to use and tailor to their own needs.

PCSP Membership/Structure

The Derry and Strabane PCSP is currently comprised of 19 members; 10 Elected Members from the 4 main political parties and 9 Independent Members from the local community appointed to the PCSP by the NI Policing Board after a public appointments process. In addition to the aforementioned members, the NI Assembly designated a number of statutory organisations onto the PCSPs. The seven designated organisations are:

- Western Health and Social Care Trust (WHSCT)
- NI Housing Executive (NIHE)
- NI Fire and Rescue Service (NIFRS)
- Police Service of NI (PSNI)
- Education Authority for NI (EANI)
- Youth Justice Agency (YJA)
- Probation Board for NI (PBNI)

Individual PCSPs also have the opportunity to make local designations if they so choose.

PCSPs also operate a Policing Committee, which is made up solely of the Elected Members and the Independent Members of the full PCSP. The Policing Committee is responsible for the delivery of the statutory functions (a) – (c) as detailed below and reports directly to the NIPB.

The PCSP reports to both the NIPB and the Department of Justice through the Joint Committee.

SECTION 2 – WHAT PCSPs ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR

As suggested by the Equality Commission Guide on Section 75, the Derry and Strabane Policing and Community Safety Partnership has taken a systematic look at its functions and how they relate to the promotion of equality of opportunity and of good relations.

This audit of Section 75 inequalities has provided the basis for the development of the Action Plan in Section 5. The Action Plan provides action measures with associated performance measures and timescales to address the key inequalities identified.

The roles and functions of PCSPs, established in the Justice Act (NI) 2011 are as follows;

(a) to provide views to a relevant district commander and to the Policing Board on any matter concerning the policing of the district;

(b) to monitor the performance of the police in carrying out
(i) the policing plan in relation to the district; and
(ii) the local policing plan applying to the district or any part of the district;

(c) to make arrangements for obtaining the co-operation of the public with the police in preventing crime and enhancing community safety in the district;

(d) to make arrangements for obtaining the views of the public about matters concerning the policing of the district and enhancing community safety in the district and to consider fully any views so obtained;

(e) to act as a general forum for discussion and consultation on matters affecting the policing of the district and enhancing community safety in the district;

(f) to prepare plans for reducing crime and enhancing community safety in the district;

(g) to identify targets or other indicators by reference to which it can assess the extent to which those issues are addressed by action taken in accordance with any such plans;

(h) to provide any such financial or other support as it considers appropriate to persons involved in ventures designed to reduce crime or enhance community safety in the district; and

(i) such other functions as are conferred on it by any other statutory provision.

In addition, the Joint Committee, which is responsible for overseeing PCSPs, has also developed a number of strategic objectives for PCSPs, in order to further develop the functions as laid down in legislation. These are as follows;

Strategic Objective 1 – to form, and successfully deliver the functions of, the Policing and Community Safety Partnership for the area by:

- Engaging with local community and statutory groups, to identify local concerns in relation to community safety, and to invite their contribution to addressing those concerns;
- Preparing the PCSP's plan, and organising the work of the partnership to meet priority needs; and
- Putting in place implementation structures and delivery mechanisms that will contribute to a reduction in crime and the enhancement of community safety in the Partnership's area, directly through the Partnership's own interventions, through the work of its delivery groups or through support for the work of others.

Strategic Objective 2 – to improve community safety by tackling crime and anti-social behaviour through:

- Ensuring that local statutory bodies and agencies deal with the anti-social behaviour and crime-related issues that matter in their area; and
- Working in partnership with the police, local statutory bodies, agencies and the community to reduce the impact of anti-social behaviour and crime on the community.
